

pantrée

reducing food waste

join pantree. fight food waste with us

Pantree allows fridge coordinators to update information on their community fridges and track upcoming donations and supplies safely and securely.

Registered local businesses are able to donate food items to community fridges. Businesses will have an easy to use system to manage donations via weight and send items on their way for a second chance.